INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Sir:

Relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund, please state whether you, your parents and your grandparents, were ever enrolled? Were any of your ancestors slaves? Do you pass as white or colored in the community in which you live? Were any of your ancestors parties to the treaties of 1825-6 and 1846? State clearly the name of the ancestor through whom you claim, and where that ancestor resided in 1825 and 1851?

Give any other information obtainable tending to establish your right to share in this fund.

Early reply will be appreciated.

Yours very truly,

a Notary Public for Montague County, Texas.

Interrogative-1st, Why were your parents and Grandparents never enrolled?

Answer, My parents failed to enroll on account of not embracing the opportunity untill the expiration of the time to do so had expired.

My Grandmother failed because her husband rather opposed it, she finally went before the Commissioners at Lurant after the expiration of the time to enroll, she is now dead, the Commissioner seemed to think her claim would have been all right if she had not slept on her rights.

Interrogative-2nd, Were any of your ancestors slaves?

Answer, No.

Interrogative-3rd, Do you pass as white or colored in the community in which you live?

Answer-, White.

Interrogative 4th, Were any of your ancestors parties to the treaties of 1835-6 and 1845?

Answer-. To this question we cannot answer for certain, but think so.

Interrogative, 5, State clearly the name of the ancestor through whom you clame, and where that ancestor resided in 1855 and 1851?

Answer,--William Worshum, he was born and lived in Pittsylvania County, Virginia, untill somewhere between the years 1845 and 1852, when he moved to pulaska or Montgomery county, of the same state, where he died at a very old age, he had two brothers named Thomas and John, we never heard if he had any sisters. we have been also told that there father name was William

Our Grate Grandfather Worshum home was always the stoping place of any of the tribe passing through the country, and seldom a week passed but one or more were not staying there, and our Grandmother has told us that she had often saw her father mixing with, and takeing a part in there Tom Tom dances.

25 or 30 years ago. But I do not know that <sup>or any</sup> ~~any~~ of them was ever Enrolled or not Enrolled.

My grand Father Jeff. Johnson and Lucy Johnson were both full Blood Cherokee Indians East.
My Father Peter <sup>Johnson</sup> was a Slave, and My Mother, Jane Johnson: were Mixed Blood Cherokee Indian and Slaves. They resided in South Carolina when the Law was made in 1835, when my Father above named <sup>and</sup> were born. And I do know that they were of Cherokee descent and Blood yet were Cherokee Slaves and was always and were always called called Cherokee and African Blood Mixed Blood.

brown complexion. She was acquainted with the Cherokee Indian people for many years and their custom cast and complexion, and we know that Cherry Castleberry was at least one half, or 3/4 Cherokee Indian blood, and we know that her children above named are part Cherokee Indian that they have the same Cherokee Indian cast, and complexion, of their mother Armer from personal knowledge and acquaintance of Armer Jones and her children. Any such doubt of their nationality, and her children are fourths Cherokee Indian blood, or one eighth if not more - Cherokee Indian - children of Armer Jones show the Cherokee Indian complexion beyond any doubt.

When more than one country is involved, the situation is more complicated. For example, in the case of the United States and the Soviet Union, the situation is more complicated because of the large number of countries involved. The United States and the Soviet Union are the two largest countries in the world, and they have a long history of rivalry. This rivalry has led to a series of conflicts, including the Cold War. The Cold War was a period of tension between the United States and the Soviet Union, lasting from the end of World War II until the early 1990s. During this time, the two superpowers fought a series of proxy wars, and there was a constant threat of nuclear war. The Cold War ended in 1991, when the Soviet Union collapsed. Since then, the United States and the Soviet Union have been allies, but the rivalry between them has not completely disappeared. There are still many issues that divide the two countries, and they continue to compete for global influence.

My name is Rebecca Pemberton; I live at Scottsboro, Ala.; I claim through my father and his father whose name was Isom Warren. Father died in 1887 and was between forty and fifty when he died; he was born in Tennessee. I suppose grandfather came from Tennessee also; father and grandfather always lived with the white people and were recognized as white people with indian blood. I never heard of father or grandfather living with the Cherokee tribe. They never got any money or land from the government and I never heard of their being enrolled. I was living in Jackson Co., Ala. in 1882; I don't know why I was not enrolled with the Cherokees at that time. I never heard my grandfather speak of a treaty with the indians in 1835 that I remember.

Sarah C. Ray being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is Sarah C. Ray: I live at Dutton, Ala.: I claim Cherokee indian blood through my mother and her mother; mother died in '81 and was 51 years old when she died. She was born in Union Co., Ga. I don't know where my grandmother was born or what part of the country she came from. My mother and her mother were recognized as white people and always lived with the white people although they claimed the indian blood; my grandfather's name was Aaron Tony and he is the one I claim my indian blood from. I have always been taught by my mother that I had Cherokee indian blood.

My mother nor grandmother never got any money or land from the government on account of having indian blood and they were never enrolled to my knowledge. I don't know why ~~we~~ us children were not enrolled- we never heard of it. My grandmother told me that the reason she and her father and mother did not go away with the Indians when they were driven away from this country was that she said that those that wanted to stay and come under the laws of the U. S. government could stay and that she and her father Aaron Tony did not want to go. I never heard my grandmother speak of her father taking any part in Cherokee tribal proceedings.

My grandmother Tony married an irishman-they ran away when they were married but I don't know where from or where to. He carried her to where his people lived, and always lived with them after that; I don't know whether she ever went back to the tribe again or not- but she told me that her father Aaron Tony would not recognize her as his child or a member of the tribe because she had run away and married an irishman.

Sir:

Your letter relative to the Eastern Cherokee enrollment is at hand, and you are advised that your application has been given a preliminary examination but it has not yet been finally acted upon.

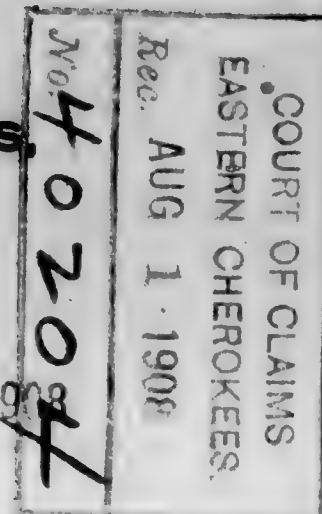

More than 44,000 applications have been filed and in many instances testimony will have to be taken locally in order to obtain the necessary information to pass upon the claims. Some of this testimony has already been taken and several parties are now engaged upon this work, but it will necessarily take considerable time to complete the taking of testimony and the final adjudication of the claims.

If we are unable to reach a conclusion as to your case you will be notified to appear before one of my assistants at some convenient point to furnish the additional testimony required.

Very respectfully,

GUION MILLER,

Sir:

Relative to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund please state why you, your parents and your grandparents, were never enrolled? Were any of your ancestors parties to the treaties of 1835-6 and 1846? State clearly the name of the ancestor through whom you claim and where that ancestor resided in 1835 and 1851? Were any of your ancestors slaves? Do you or are you white or colored in the community in which you live?

Give any other information obtainable tending to establish your right to share in this fund.

An early reply will be appreciated.

Appl. #40235-40235

Georgia E. Covington, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is Georgia E. Covington. I live Chambley, Ga. I was born in 1850 in DeKalb County, Ga. I claim to be connected by blood to the Cherokee tribe of Indians. They tell me that my great grandfather on my mother's side married a half or quarter blood Cherokee. His name was John Evans. He married a Miss Carter. I think her given name was Nancy. I never heard whether my great grandfather took his wife from the tribe or went there and lived with them with her. My mother and grandfather were recognized as white people, and lived with the white people. In 1882 I was living in Fulton County. I don't remember ever hearing of a roll at that time. I believe I did hear tell of it too. I have heard of the Treaty that the Government made with the Indians in 1835, but I don't know what it was about.

Dear Sir:-

In reply to your letter to William J. Owens in reference to the births of his children, I beg to give them to you as follows:

Ethel Lee Owens born Dec. 31, 1900
Lula Odessa Owens born June 4, 1903
Jackson Owens born November 27, 1906.

My copy of this application shows Jackson Owens was born May 27, 1906, which is a typographical error, it should have been November 27, 1906.

Yours very truly,

Burton Smith
